First Reading

A reading from St Paul's letter to the Romans

With God on our side who can be against us? Since God did not spare his own Son, but gave him up to benefit us all, we may be certain, after such a gift, that he will not refuse anything he can give. Could anyone accuse those that God has chosen? When God acquits, could anyone condemn? Could Christ Jesus? No! He not only died for us — he rose from the dead, and there at God's right hand he stands and pleads for us. Nothing therefore can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of him who loved us. For I am certain of this, neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

is listening, you have the message of eternal life, *Alleluia Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. You know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?'

Jesus said:

'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me.'

Thank You

The family would like to thank you for attending today and for the endless sympathy and support you have shown at this difficult time.

Unfortunately, due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, we are unable to gather later today to share fond and happy memories of Eric. Once restrictions allow, we will be arranging a memorial service, where we would enjoy your presence.

Donations are being received in memory of Eric for Parkinsons UK, visit www.parkinsons.org.uk to donate. We thank you kindly for your generosity.
