Last Weekend Catch Up

On Saturday our title hopes suffered a blow as we were defeated in a rain affected game at East Lancs. We made 174 all out with the pro top scoring with 35 before being run out by a direct hit from David Turner. Will Driver (31) and Jon Finch (30) were amongst the runs sharing an opening stand of 74. However 4 runs outs affected the House innings with East Lancs sub professional Ryan Bailey picking up 4-62. Bailey then hit 48 with fine support from Andy Counce who made 45 with four sixes. The game was in the balance albeit with East Lancs strong favourites when at 164-7 rain ended play after 35 overs. In the East Lancs innings professional Brendan Drew picked up his 50th wicket of the season in taking 2-43.

On Sunday Hassan Khan was again the star making 74 in the process of passing 600 runs for the season. The pro made a quick undefeated 68 including six 6's as House made 183-3 in a 30 overs per side contest. Church never really got going in their reply and Will Driver collected 4-11 as they were dismissed for 97. Chris Benbow also picked up 2-24. Niel Bredenkamp top scored with 28, Andy Bentley was unbeaten on 18 and Sam Tucker made 17 for Church.
